

SITUATION AS GRAVE AS IN AUGUST 1914

LONDON, Aug. 5.—(By the Associated Press)—Among British officials and diplomats of other nations here, undisguised anxiety is felt over the Russo-Polish situation. One high official said: "THE SITUATION IS AS GRAVE AS THE ONE IN AUGUST, 1914."

(The grave situation of August, 1914, to which the above London dispatch refers was that immediately preceding a declaration of war by Great Britain which brought her into the European conflict.)

SUFFS' FATE HINGES ON TENNESSEE PRIMARY

MEMPHIS, TENN., Aug. 5.—Interest in today's state wide primaries in Tennessee centered in the election of fifteen members of the legislature. To the women's unit in the contest for the Democratic and Republican gubernatorial nominations.

One of the women suffrage amendments which the general assembly is expected to take up next week at a special session, was believed by suffrage leaders to hinge on today's results. Governor Roberts has indicated that immediately after the election he will issue a call for the legislature to meet Monday.

Senatorial Race Close
ST. LOUIS, MO., Aug. 5.—Political interest in Missouri today centered on the race for the Democratic senatorial nomination as returns of Tuesday's state wide primary continued to drift in from the rural districts.

With unofficial, incomplete returns from about fifty of 114 counties, and St. Louis giving Breckinridge Long, a majority of 4,241 votes over former Federal Judge Henry S. Priest, the contest of his two opponents, the Globe Democrat, Independent Republican paper, by which the vote was compiled, announced today that Long will win a plurality which may exceed 10,000. His principal strength lies in the rural communities, returns indicate.

Long campaigned on a league of nations and law enforcement platform. Priest, meanwhile, and vet. Charles H. Day who appears to be running about 15,000 behind Long was endorsed by the Anti-Saloon League and its allies.

Re-election of Senator Selden "Spec" Spencer, Republican senatorial candidate, was conceded last night by the organization which promoted the candidacy of Dwight E. Davis, who, as Senator Spencer, led a three-cornered race. Possibilities also centered in the contest, Davis opposing the Federal law on which Senator Spencer was expected to override President Wilson's veto.

Goods including fur coats, silk sweaters, dresses, etc., valued at $10,000 were recovered by detectives from the home of one of the women. Three confessed police allege, to a long series of thefts.

Coughlin Child Hidden In Atlantic City

PHILADELPHIA, August 5.—"The Crank" disclosed as August 5th, of New Gretna, N. J., refuses to reveal the whereabouts of little Dikely Coughlin unless he is granted immunity in the kidnapping.

He is bawling now to exchange the child, stolen from his parents home in Norristown on June 2, for his freedom. He is said to have gone so far as to admit the fifteen months' old baby is hidden in Atlantic City.

Important developments in the case are expected today following the disclosure early today that "The Crank's" name is August Panoel, of French and Italian extraction, who recently lived in this city and since last week in New Gretna, N. J.

An all of investigation surrounds the house of George H. Coughlin, the missing child's father, on the Plymouth Boulevard, outside of Norristown.

Search For Woman Accomplished
A woman, long suspected as having a part in the kidnapping, seems up and about today. An acquaintance of Panoel's says he knows Panoel had a woman on his mind. The state police and postal agents are now on her track and believe she has the child.

Panoel is still being grilled by the state police. He was taken to New Gretna after his capture Monday near Erie Harbor. The visit was admitted today by Attorney Maxwell. "Panoel is the man and he was in New Gretna after his capture," said the federal official. "I can say nothing more at present."

Bus Farm and Arms
Panoel only recently bought a farm at New Gretna from William Gregory, and drove to this city in a motor car last Thursday to take possession, according to W. H. Kelley, railroad agent at Tucker today near New Gretna.

Panoel took three or four rifles, and a quantity of liquor to the New Gretna farm, when he moved there last Thursday said Kelly. "He recovered the rifles quickly from the motor car into the farm house, and did not appear to want any one to see them," Kelly added. "One of my men who was helping the Gregory's to move, spied the rifles and Panoel motioned him away from the car. He offered him a drink of gin which my man said he refused."

Understand Panoel took several quarts of whiskey and gin to the farm. I was not especially attracted to him until Monday, the day he was arrested. He came to the station early, long before the train for Philadelphia was due to leave.

"He sat in the waiting room, and I should say he had a good case of nerves. In his excitement he would drum his fingers, making a loud noise, so loud, in fact, I peered through the window at him several times."

Panoel, the police learned today, opened an account with a Philadelphia bank on June 21, four days after the father of the kidnapped child had placed $12,000 in a hiding place near his home. The mysterious letter writer, signing himself "The Crank," had directed that this be done as a preliminary to the return of the child.

The first deposit was $1,000. Later three more were added. On Monday morning before his arrest, Panoel paid the balance due on his new home in New Gretna with a certified check of the Philadelphia bank.

"The Morning After!"

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The "easy money" days are over; the silk shirts are worn out; the diamonds, bought with the peak of prosperity pay, are drifting into the backshops.

All this comes from "Dimmy" Shanks, of Park Row, who runs a pawnshop and is known as "The human financial barometer."

"One hundred dollars is the limit of a loan nowadays," says Mr. Shanks. "Tight money is quite as much an enemy of the pawnbroker as of any other person. We like good times, when there is plenty of money in circulation and the public pawns jewelry for short-time loans. We can see depression further ahead than most people, because we judge from those who leave valuables on long-time loans."

"The 'easy money' crowd has been having a fine time, with plenty of good jobs and high wages. Persons who never before had $100 have asked me to appraise diamonds worth $600 or $700 that they were going to buy."

Now they are hark seeking to sell them when they find that they can't borrow more than $100 on them.

"The soft jobs are disappearing, and the age of national living, rapidly is heading this way."

New Disease Threatens The Corn Crop

CHILLICOTTE, O., August 5.—A new corn disease which threatens the growing crop has made its appearance in this county. So far botanists of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, have been unable to diagnose the disease. It is said.

The new disease made its appearance on the farm of Thomas Hefner, north of this city a few days ago. An apparently healthy stock began to turn pale and withered, the top falling off. Examination of the stalk by botanists revealed a running sore which constantly spreads until the heart is eaten away. Investigations are being continued.

No far the affected area is small but spreading.

Suffrage Leaders Doubt Sincerity Of Nominees To Get Amendment Ratified

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright by Times Publishing Co.)
COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 5.—Women are sometimes supposed to arrive at conclusions by intuition but whatever it is at the bottom of it, the fact that several suffrage leaders who are keeping close watch on governor Cox and Senator Harding generally say the Republican and Democratic candidates for the presidency, either separately or together, can furnish the necessary state to make valid the nineteenth amendment enfranchising the women of the country.

The suffrage leaders make out a circumstantial case tending to show that they are the victims of political chicanery if Tennessee does not ratify the amendment next week, they will not hesitate to place the blame where they think it should be placed. The women have expressed suspicion about the sincerity of both Democratic and Republican efforts to get the suffrage amendment ratified. Complaint is made that the Republicans in the senate could have furnished the extra vote to get the amendment through the session of Congress in which the Democrats last exercised control and that more time would have been available to get the approval of state legislatures before the presidential election.

It is declared, for instance, that Senator Hale of Maine, Republican, could have voted for suffrage as readily when the Democrats had control as when the Republicans came into power a few months later.

Have Quarrel With G.O.P. Managers
But the quarrel of the suffrage leaders is not with the Republican campaign managers this year, who, it is charged, have been able whenever they wanted to say the word to get ratification through either Vermont or Connecticut legislatures, but have feared the woman vote on the "League of Nations" issue might swing the election for Cox.

To some extent, the same sort of talk is heard among Democrats who say the Republicans have it in their power to ratify the suffrage amendment to get the amendment through the session of Congress in which the Democrats last exercised control and that more time would have been available to get the approval of state legislatures before the presidential election.

FRANCE AND BRITAIN TO COMBINE TO MEET SERIOUS EUROPEAN CRISIS

LONDON, August 5.—The Evening News learns that the government today considered the Polish situation and that "large quantities of war material are to be sent immediately in concert with France."

"There is no intention on the part of the allies," the newspaper adds, "to depart in the slightest degree from their position regarding Poland." The British government may have to call for volunteers within the next few days, the Evening News declares, "to aid in the preservation of the Versailles treaty."

"It would be possible for the war office to send four divisions within the next few weeks, two divisions immediately. Steps are being taken to mobilize the navy, but the cabinet has not yet definitely decided."

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)
The march of the Russians on Warsaw has created a situation which is causing grave anxiety in European capitals. Some expressions go even to the extent of comparing it with that of August, 1914.

The allies are making representations to Soviet Russia. In aid of Poland, the British note dispatched yesterday, being now described in some quarters as in the nature of an ultimatum, although allegations that it contained a threat of war are not confirmed in authoritative quarters.

The Russian emissaries now in London are reported to have recognized the gravity of conditions and to be urging their government to halt the Russian march in Poland.

WARSAW, August 5.—(By The Associated Press)—Most Americans, excepting welfare workers and having business in Warsaw will have departed from this city by tomorrow night. It was announced by the authorities late today. More than 200 left for Danzig tonight, and the American legation has arranged for 200 seat reservations on trains leaving tomorrow.

LONDON, Aug. 5.—(By The Associated Press)—Law Kamenoff, president of the Moscow Soviet, is reported to have sent a message to his government asking that Russia accept immediately the original British proposals for an armistice with Poland.

M. Kamenoff, it is said, sent his message after he and Leonid Kravish, the Russian minister of trade and commerce had had a very plain talk with Premier Lloyd George and Andrew Bonar Law, government leaders in the house of commons, last night.

Up to the middle of this afternoon, no reply had been received. M. Kamenoff and M. Kravish are members of the Russian commission, which came here to conduct negotiations looking to the restoration of trade between Great Britain and Russia.

In a statement in the house of commons today in regard to last evening's conference with the Soviet delegates, Premier Lloyd George said he and Mr. Bonar Law made it clear to M. Kamenoff and Kravish that the immediate conclusion of an armistice on fair terms was the only course which would remove suspicion that the Soviet government was insincere in its professed desire for peace and its declaration that it intended respect the liberty and independence of Poland.

Premier Lloyd George added that he and Mr. Bonar Law also made it clear that in view of the fact that ethnographical Poland had been invaded, "We would take effective steps to remove obstacles in the way of transmission to Poland from Danzig of military supplies which could be obtained from that quarter."

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Efforts by the allies of the Polish republic to stem the tide of the Russian Bolshevik invasion which threatens Warsaw, seem to have been futile.

Brest-Litovsk, the last bastion in the permanent defense east of the Polish capital, is in the hands of the Soviet armies, and Lwow, an important railroad junction, and strategic base to the northeast, and Kovel, north-east of Brest-Litovsk, have been given up by the Poles.

West of Brest-Litovsk, the Poles still hold the great forts that have made that city one of the principal fortresses of eastern Europe, but the Soviet troops have been dug across the Bug river further to the northwest and it would appear this move will compel a retirement of the Poles from their defenses. The Russians are advancing in Belorussia after the tactics (Continued on Page Eight)

TO PUT DOWN REVOLT

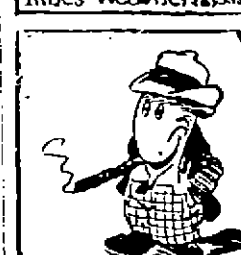

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 5.—Government troops which will be sent into Lower California to put down the insurrection led by Estaban Cantu, governor of that state, are being mobilized at Guaymas and Puerto Isabel, in the state of Sonora, and at other points. General L. Elias Calles Calles, secretary of war said last night.

"Cantu has not more than 1,000 men," he added, "and they are not of the fighting kind. Most of them are saloonkeepers and gamblers."

WHISKEY AND GIN SEIZED
SANDUSKY, O., August 5.—Fifty cases of Canadian whiskey and gin valued at $5,000 were seized and Walter Beaumia, 32, Detroit, was arrested last night by federal and local police authorities, following a tip that a motor boat from Windsor, Canada, laden with contraband liquor, was hidden behind Cedar Point peninsula waiting for opportunity to unload. This is the first successful effort, it is said, of authorities to break up the rum-runners' trade between Canada and Lake Erie ports.

Russia And Germany In Secret Treaty Over Poland

LONDON, Aug. 5.—Soviet Russia concluded a secret treaty with Germany concerning Poland a few weeks before the great Polish offensive began, says a correspondent of the London Times. He claims he has secured the information from "reliable authority."

The treaty it is asserted, contained the following provisions: Russia, without interference from Germany, would be allowed to appropriate all of Poland's arms, munitions, rolling stock and food stuffs.

After the conquest of Poland, steps in the formation of which are permission would be given Russia to send a number of Bolshevik commissars into that country to control the export of Polish supplies of all kinds.

Russia would then undertake to completely evacuate Poland in favor of Germany, which would hold the country as a guarantee against future credits to Russia in return for German goods and German labor.

"Russia," the correspondent adds, "intends to try to avoid the terms of this treaty by the creation of a Polish Bolshevik army, the first now being taken in occupied areas of Poland. When Russia withdraws from Poland she will leave this Polish army, permitting Germany to take such steps as she can to face the situation. The Bolsheviks are convinced England will not materially aid Poland, and will wage their last campaign against Russia in Bessarabia."

What The Bloom Township Schools Need

Total amount of money needed for all purposes for the schools of Bloom township school district, 1920-21, $12,250.00.

Total amount of money from the school levy, by action of the board of education, that can be raised in Bloom township school district is $4,900.00.

The school district is short the difference, $7,350.00.

The district may receive from the state $1,800.00.

The district may receive from the county $1,000.00.

The district may receive from the township $1,000.00.

The district may receive from the state $1,800.00.

The district may receive from the county $1,000.00.

The district may receive from the township $1,000.00.

basis of aggregate daily attendance, small sum of—The immediate debt in February, 1921, $2,000.00.

The district is still short $7,350.00.

The state says that in such cases as the above the people shall vote an additional 3 mill levy, after which the state will furnish the balance of the funds for school purposes. The additional 3 mill levy when voted will produce $1,800.00.

The state aid from the reserve fund will furnish the balance of the required amount of money, which is about $5,550.00 minus $1,800.00, which equals approximately $3,750.00.

Should the people vote down the 3 mill levy the district will lose the state aid and the board of education may be obliged to lead the district for sufficient money to run the schools and the taxpayers will have to pay the bill with interest on the same. In other words, it is a refusal to accept the state's generous offer. If money enough cannot be raised through the bonds the board of education may be ordered to close certain schools and send the children to some other school or schools. Do you want that done, if that should become necessary in your district? If not, vote "Yes" on the tax levy August 10.

Your attention is being called to facts pertaining to the schools which is not a matter of choice; for they are in the laws of the state, and all laws will be enforced.

I believe that all the people of your district want good schools, and will, therefore, do all they can to make such schools possible, and they will be impossible without the money. Of course you will vote on August 10 for the 3 mill levy. It is for the sake of the boys and girls, the future citizens of this country.

I hereby certify that the above statements and figures are approximately correct.

Signed:
ROY H. COBURN, County Auditor,

FOR CHIEF JUSTICE

CARRINGTON T. MARSHALL

One of the numerous candidates for the Republican nomination for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio is Carrington T. Marshall of Cincinnati.

Mr. Marshall is in the strictest sense a well-known man, having been a long time in a law firm near Cincinnati.

Politics has always been a prominent feature in his life, having actively served in the County Executive Committee of Hamilton County many years.

He was elected to the Ohio State Bar Association in 1915, and has since that time been an active member. As a trial lawyer he has won many cases, and the records will show that he has been successful in more than 20 per cent of the cases in which he has participated.

Mr. Marshall has been a member of the Ohio State Bar Association and the American Bar Association.

He would show his ability by his record in the past, and his experience, character, and physical condition make him an ideal candidate.

His record in his law firm in all Southern Ohio is more than sufficient to show his ability. He is a representative of the best of the law profession in Ohio, and his endorsement of the law profession and the other counties in Ohio.

POLITICS

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., August 5.—Excess profit taxes perhaps justified as an automatic remedy for war profiteering should be abandoned, declared Walter F. Brown, Republican senatorial candidate in a speech before the Chamber of Commerce here today. "The Federal Taxation System," said Brown, "must be revised and radically changed, the pyramidical of so-called excess profit taxes from the producer of the raw material to the retailer of the finished product has put an intolerable burden upon the consumer, and is one of the chief causes of the present high cost of living," said Brown. "The high cost of federal government itself and important element in the high cost of living must be curbed by five thousand superfluous government employees at Washington all non-productive consumers maintained at an annual charge of not less than $100,000,000 should be sent back to their homes where they can at least produce the equivalent of what they consume," declared Brown in speaking of the present labor situation. Brown said, "There is no magical short cut to industrial peace. I have no confidence in compulsory arbitration or so-called industrial courts, labor management and capital co-operate for only one result, merely production."

Mr. Brown urged sound public opinion as the best means of promoting industrial peace. Brown spent the earlier part of the day in Urbansville and Canal Dover, attending an outing of the Twin City Business Men's Association at Riverside Park, near Round Bay and conferring with prominent Republicans.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 5.—Candidates of both parties seeking nomination were busy today in various parts of the state urging their cause.

In Akron, Judge A. F. O'Neil, Democratic candidate for the senatorial nomination, issued a statement, in which he charged that "party bosses" had made up a slate which they were electing in Cuyahoga and Hamilton counties. "These bosses want to make the Ohio primaries a closed road to all but their slated candidates," he said.

Former Governor Willis, who is seeking the Republican nomination for senator, in a speech at New Philadelphia, declared that "growing evidence of public disapproval of the league of nations has made itself so pronounced that the Democratic party is seeking to change the issue even before the campaign is formally launched." Willis asserted Governor Cox accepted the league as approved by President Wilson and must be content to make his campaign on it in accordance with the president's views.

It was announced today that Governor Cox will receive a large delegation of farmers from all sections of the country here, September 2, when the national board of farm organizations is in convention.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 5.—Former Governor Frank H. Willis as a Republican candidate for United States senator will sweep Hamilton county in November, said former W. W. Yeatman of this city. "Willis has grown immensely in popular estimate in this county since 1918 and the Republican organization has given its pledge that it will do everything to secure his election in November."

"It is a duty the Republicans of Ohio owe the state and nation to send Willis to the United States senate. Ohio has always had Republican representation in the upper branch of congress of men who were recognized leaders, men who added lustre to the Buckeye State; and Ohio now has an opportunity of again being represented by a Republican equally distinguished, one who is favorably known the country over and whose presence in the senate will be hailed by the entire nation. With Senator Willis backing President Harding, giving him powerful support by voice and action, Ohio will have a commanding position which will make every Buckeye proud, regardless of party affiliation."

The plaintiff states that on July 23 last, she bought a ticket and boarded on N. & W. passenger train at Williamsport for passage to Ft. Gay, W. By reason of the unusual delay she was put to additional expense for room, board and train fare back, she claims. Besides alleging that she was humiliated and disgraced in

You know "it's toasted." But do you know why?

LUCKY STRIKE is the toasted cigarette. Lucky Strike is the toasted pipe tobacco. And because Lucky Strike is toasted it preserves the Burley flavor for you until you smoke it.

The exact reason for this is interesting. You see, when Lucky Strike is toasted the heat closes the pores in the Burley leaves, and literally seals in the Burley flavor. It stays there for months—years—until it is released by burning in your pipe or cigarette.

Or take the method of the bee. You can put a honey-comb away for months or years and the flavor is always there—inside. This is because the bees put a thin coating of wax over the honey and seal it in, so it lasts forever.

The same with Lucky Strike. Toasting the tobacco seals in the delicious Burley flavor, to be "called for when wanted."

Whether you are a cigarette smoker or a pipe smoker you should get acquainted with the special and unequalled flavor of toasted Burley tobacco—to be found only in the Lucky Strike brand. Buy a package and you will notice this improved taste immediately.

COLONEL HUNT ACQUIRED
NEW YORK—Colonel John H. Hunt, former commander of Fort Jay military prison, was acquired at charge of neglect of duty in connection with escape of Graver, C. Berghol, Philadelphia draft dodger.

"The whiskey flowed and unity a drop to drink," was the expression of a large throng of New Boston, people that gathered about the mayor's office at New Boston Wednesday morning, when more than 50 gallons of mash and 20 gallons of moonshine whiskey were heaved overboard, out of a side window, to flow gently away through the deep weeds.

The reason was the destruction of "evidence" which had been confiscated in recent raids by New Boston officers.

Marshall Hall was the chief executioner, with Mayor Darls holding the watch as official witness.

One bystander was heard to say: "A useless waste of money to waste all that stuff," as he hurried off to a soft drink parlor.

Will Vote On Additional Tax Levy For The City

An attempt was made by council on Wednesday night to overrule the mayor's veto of the resolution adopted at a recent meeting which authorized the submission to electors of the city at the primary election on August 10, the question of exempting from the limitations of the Smith one percent law, levies for interest and sinking fund purposes on account of the outstanding bonded indebtedness of the city.

Mayor W. N. Gableman, in a communication, which was read, told his reason for disapproving the resolution in this language: "In view of the fact that the original resolution merely gave a proposition up to the electors for approval or disapproval, I regard the action of council in repealing that resolution and refusing the electors of the city an opportunity to express an opinion as ill-advised and ill-timed.

"In matters of this nature endorsed by all civic organizations and recommended by financial experts as the best method of securing certain relief, made necessary by the burden of readjustment which we are going through, the public should have the right to give expression to its views."

"The action of the mayor means that the proposition of the additional levy will go to the electors next Tuesday for decision."

Declare Street In Bad Shape

A delegation of Eleventh street property owners, headed by William Brugan, desired some relief from the bad condition of that street, which they declared, is becoming almost impassable, due to the condition of the paving, especially between the street car tracks. The delegation urged that the street be permanently improved, and suggestions were made that it be paved on a concrete base.

Alan Jordan also directed attention to the bad condition of Second street, from Chillicothe street to the School bridge, and urged that this thoroughfare be considered in the improvement plans. After considerable discussion, the matter was referred to the street committee to determine the kind of improvement and report. The committee announced that it would confer with the property owners before reaching any conclusion as to the manner of improving these streets, as it was explained that the abutting property will of a necessity have to share a portion of the expense should a permanent improvement be decided upon.

The request of the Board of Health for an appropriation of $250 to pay an increase of $20 a month salary to the plumbing inspector on assuming the duties also as sanitary policeman, was received and legislation was ordered referring the authority of sanitary inspection from the service department to the board of health. This is expected to aid the board in its proposed campaign soon to be launched to enforce the law relating to sanitary sewer taps in an effort to better health conditions generally throughout the city, and particularly in certain districts where a recent sanitary survey shows diseases are most prevalent. The increase of $20 a month salary was voted Inspector William West in order that he may maintain an automobile which will materially aid him in discharging his duties. It is claimed.

Considerable legislation was passed, including an ordinance increasing the license fee for moving picture theaters and instead of paying a straight fee of $25 a year as now, these amusement places will be required to pay according to the seating capacity. Here are the new prices provided in the new ordinance: Seating 975 or more, $300.00 a year; 3 months, $100.00; 1 month, $50.00.

Seating less than 975 and less than 200 persons, $200.00 a year; 3 months, $75.00; 1 month, $40.00; 1 day, $5.00. Less than 200 persons, $150.00 a year; 3 months, $50.00; 1 month, $25.00; 1 day, $5.00.

Plan For More Sewers

Resolutions were adopted declaring it necessary to construct 12 sewers in various parts of the city, including several in the Sunnyside addition, and at the suggestion of Alan Jordan the time limit for paying the assessment was extended to cover a period of 10 years, instead of five years, as originally suggested.

An ordinance was also passed accepting the plat of Hillside addition platted by Horace L. Small and another ordinance making it unlawful to remove corner-stones establishing the true location of streets, alleys, lots or lands and making the offense subject to a fine of from $25 to $50, received the support of all members.

An ordinance to issue bonds in the sum of $12,500, for the purpose of improving the wharves and landings at Union street and Market street, went through without a dissenting vote, and a resolution was adopted directing the city auditor to make up a financial statement of the city as of the first day of July, with a view of funding deficiencies in operating revenues of the city for 1920, to issue bonds and to levy taxes for such purposes.

On the recommendation of Solicitor Skelton the necessary legislation was ordered to pay the damage claims of Charles Brazie, C. W. Hildebrand and Mrs. Augusta Schreiman, aggregating $450.00, resulting from a collision between Brazie's Ford automobile and a fire truck at Ninth and Washington streets on Nov. 16, 1919. Brazie and Hildebrand were both hurt and their claims consist principally of hospital bills and medical attention.

The service director was instructed to communicate with the U. & O. Railway company with a view of securing repairs to crossings in the West End, and the city engineer was directed to bring in an estimate of the cost of providing temporary drainage in Lawson's Run to give relief to residents in that vicinity from offensive odors arising from sewerage.

Council adjourned until Aug. 12, when the new building code, prepared at the direction of and approved by the Chamber of Commerce will be considered.

THE MOVIES

What is it that a woman will not tell? See Alice Lake in Metro's "Should a Woman Tell?" at the Eastland Theatre tomorrow and Saturday. A gripping story of a fisher girl and a real love. Also other features.

Not often are we given over to sympathetic consideration of the dramatic merits of a photograph, and still less often to the artistic, but the picture which the Eastland Theatre will present tomorrow and Saturday for the first time in this city is one of the most gripping, appealing and emotion-making productions which have been shown here for some time. This picture is "Should a Woman Tell?" featuring Alice Lake with Jack Mulhall and an all star Metro cast.

As Meta Shivan, the fisher girl whose conscience haunts her here to the man she loved the secret of her youth and whose worldly wisdom counselled the security of silence, Alice Lake has given a performance even more capable than her portrayal of Nora Blake with Bert Lytell in "Loulou," Ltd. This reflects not upon Miss Lake's previous work, but is indication rather that the role of Meta offers unusual emotional and dramatic possibilities and this promising young actress makes the most of them all. No less pleasing were Jack Mulhall, who gave a manly straightforward and genuine unaffected portrayal of the artist, lover, and Frank Currier, the veteran of the stage and screen, whose work has made for him a legion of genuine friends as introduced through the medium of the pictures.

"Should a Woman Tell?" bears the stamp of personal slant of approval which means a guaranteed production. Other features on the program include a Sam Pollard comedy and a new issue of the Pathé Review. Shows starting promptly each night at 7:30 and 9 P. M. Admission adults 25 cents, children 10 cents.

Sunset on the pine-clad hills. The sweet smell of balsam. The ripple of falling waters and the soft words of man and maid stealing across the mirror surface of a mountain lake. It is Arcadia, the cradle of romance. If you would live in this nature-blessed land come to the Eastland Theatre tonight and see the film actor, Frank Mayo in his first big Universal Special production, "The Red Lane."

As the young American customs of the north, Frank Mayo is seen at his best. This villa screen star delights with his portrayal of the role of Norman Aldrich, and sways the audience as he does his faithful French-Canadian friends, William H. Hays in the role of Marie Beaulieu is the object and aim of Aldrich who strives as hard for her love as he does in "Releasing" the Red Lane, the real by which a husband is strangled across the border.

You are going to more than like this good picture, so be on hand tonight. No advance in admission price. A new Rainbow comedy will be the added feature.

End of the story by James Oliver Curwood and distributed by First National Exhibitors' Circuit, which ends an engagement at the Strand Theatre tonight.

The story involves John Keith, wanted for murder, who is captured by Curwood and distributed by First National Exhibitors' Circuit, which ends an engagement at the Strand Theatre tonight.

When the officer is taken suddenly into a house of attention between the two, so that, at Consonant's death, Keith promises to impersonate his captor and take over his duties with the law.

Lewis Stone is seen as the murderer and his captor.

Your last chance to see a good play.

W. H. BRANDES, of Des Moines, Iowa, who declares, he gained twenty pounds in thirty days after taking Tanlac and now feels like a different man.

"Thirty days ago or a little more, I only weighed 125 pounds, but now I balance the scales at 145 pounds and 'Tanlac did it,' declared W. H. Brandes, a well-known and highly respected citizen of Des Moines, Iowa. Mr. Brandes has been looking after the plumbing work of the Des Moines Public Schools for the past sixteen years.

"And many of the teachers and scholars can tell you how different I look since I began taking Tanlac," he said. "I suffered from indigestion of the worst kind for the past year or more and was often so weak and dizzy I couldn't stand up. I ate alone walk. Nothing helped me. I finally had to take my bed and stay there for several weeks. Finally a friend persuaded me to try Tanlac and I have never seen or heard of anything to equal it. It relieved me entirely of indigestion and put me right back on my feet. I have not only gained twenty pounds in weight, but I feel like a new man in every way. I just think Tanlac is the finest thing ever sold in a drug store."

Tanlac is sold in Portsmouth by the Fisher and Steinhilber Pharmacy and by the leading druggists in every town.

Enough lumber to build a good sized town was put into construction. Two hundred thousand yards of lumber went into the covering of the buildings.

Nearly an entire menagerie was required for local color: 41 camels, 2,500 horses, 25 dockers, 20 elephants, goats, sheep, bulldozers, oxen, dogs, cats, parrots, doves, and peacocks.

Ten thousand costumes were made for the players.

Here for the day only.

Former county residents plan to return on their annual visits at Fair time.

The loyal support given the fair last year by exhibitors and the people from city and country alike have encouraged the management to attempt bigger, better, more constructive things. This was exactly the stimulant that was most needed. Everybody — privilege men, exhibitors, patrons, all went away happy and satisfied — and they will all want to come again. It takes people to make a fair. Last year there were close to 10,000 people on the grounds the big day. This year with the special train to assist in getting 'folks there are

A few years more like the last two will put the Association completely out of debt and then there will be scarcely any limit to the accomplishments that may be attained.

Hits Wife With Bowl; Eshom Fined

William Eshom, car repairer, of 721 Campbell avenue, was convicted in Municipal court Thursday on a charge of assault and battery upon his wife, Grace Eshom, and Judge Small fined him $10 and costs.

The wife testified that Eshom struck her on the back of the head with a bowl last Saturday night, cutting a gash two inches long and knocking her unconscious. Eshom declared she attempted to attack him with a table fork and he contended he struck her in self defense.

The evidence disclosed that the trouble arose after the wife had returned late at night from a dance which she attended over his objections. The court held there were mitigating circumstances by reason of the apparent neglect of the wife and only assessed a nominal fine against the husband.

Local Elks To Attend State Convention

Large delegations of local Elks are planning to attend the state convention to be held at Ashland next week. The Ashland lodge is making extensive preparations to entertain visiting Elks.

The Boyd County Fair will be in full swing during that week and the races will be an additional attraction. Quite a large proportion of the local membership will be included in the delegation to the Kentucky city.

Ashland already is in gala attire for the big event, the buildings and streets being gaily decorated. It promises to be one of the greatest affairs in the history of the city.

Clown Searles, Democratic candidate for congress from this, the sixth district, was in the city yesterday.

He says he is waging a successful campaign and is meeting with encouragement from all sides. Mr. Searles, who is well known here as census supervisor of this district.

LAUNDRY COMPANY INCORPORATES

The Union Laundry company of this city was Thursday incorporated in Columbus with a capital stock of $50,000.

The incorporators are Charles H. Housh, Jr., James W. Fitch, David Mitchell, Samuel Hordlow and Attorney Steward Johnson. The firm will later effect an organization and will select a site for their plant. It was stated today that several are under consideration.

Plan For Portsmouth Day At Big Fair

N. A. at a meeting of the Retail Merchants' Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, Wednesday afternoon, it was decided that Thursday of next week would be observed as Portsmouth Day at the State County Fair.

The biggest attendance in years is expected on this day.

Great Attraction

The biggest bargain attraction of the year will be the final portion of the West Texas season. The Cubs also have taken on a soldier pitcher named Joe Jager, an overseas veteran, who has been stationed at Fort Sheridan, where he pitched with great success for the army post team.

The Reds will open a five game series in Philly today. If the team makes a good showing there it probably will go back to first place as New York and Chicago will be battling each other. But the Reds are playing trouble ball and have been making trouble for all comers.

Ten years ago Charlie Doan was manager and first string catcher of the Philadelphia National League team and one of the best known and most popular players on the circuit. He drifted to the minors a few years later and last year retired, his last engagement having been with the International League.

Charlie Doan is just now popular down at Atlantic City, where he is a ball singer at the Steel Pier with the Murphy American minstrels, and he is making good.

It will be remembered that Doan had his ups and downs as manager of the Phillies in 1910. For a while the team led the league and then fell to a lowly position in the standing, but by hard work on Doan's part landed in fifth position at the close of the season.

HUNTON, Aug. 5.—Probably the biggest game of the season will be played next Sunday afternoon at Beechwood Park when the Houston Astros will stake up against the strong Kenosha team. The Kenosha team has been defeating all the teams in this section of the country and defeated Russell last Sunday by a large score. The Kenosha team has three pitchers who have made a name for themselves locally, and these, with the strong lineup which Kenosha presents, makes a strong team, which has as yet been undefeated. These pitchers are Van Dyke, Farrell and Big Sam Wright, who is well known here. Eshom pitched such a brilliant game last Sunday against Portsmouth will do the hurting for the locals and undoubtedly this will prove the best game of the year.

JUST DOPE

An Excelsior broker has just bet $100 that the Giants will not beat the Dodgers in the National League. Today it is a different story.

The Giants really look like the one to beat. The pitchers have been in form and the team is better than ever. The Dodgers, on the other hand, are not doing so well. The Giants are not only better, but they are also more consistent. The Dodgers are still a team to watch, but the Giants are the ones to bet on.

Chiropractic, Mechano-Therapy and Hydro-Therapy

Chiropractic (Kiro-prak-tik) is the first and the only exact science that removes the cause of disease. Other systems are still laboring with effects of disease and treating symptoms.

The brain generates the nerve stimulus or electricity which runs your body, and from there it is conducted to the various organs, glands, muscles and parts by the nerves. When the flow of nerve force from the brain to any organ or tissue is restricted, perfect health is lost. That part of the body is affected, but when an impulse of nerve force is restored, the flow of impulse is restored, allowing only a small part of nature's life-giving force to pass through the parts supplied.

These parts being thus deprived of their normal amount of nerve stimulus, begin to weaken and are unable to function properly. The result is disease.

The competent Chiropractor with trained fingers locates the sublimated vertebrae in the spine, and in a skillful manner adjusts them to normal position, removing the pressure from the nerves, thus permitting nature to send a full flow of pulsating, vitalizing, life-giving impulses to affected organs and tissues, thus removing the cause of disease.

Mechano-therapy is the use of manual, physical or mechanical measures for therapeutic purposes.

Fugitive Sought By Posse Known In Portsmouth

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 5.—A posse of several armed farmers and county officers, armed with guns, ropes and pitchforks, this morning continued to scour Madison, Jessamine and Fayette counties in a search for Buford Monday, indicted, 28 years old, charged with having assaulted Mrs. Charles Sanders, sixteen years old, of Valley View, Madison county, Ky., fifteen miles from here.

THE DESIRE OF ALL

THERE is a woman going over the country organizing Century Clubs. What organization is back of her and her methods are not stated, but there can be no question that her professed object meets a quick response in every human heart and there is no reason to question the assertion that people in all walks of life flock to her meetings and listen intently to her.

The Century Club answers its own name, so to speak. Its one and sole purpose is to prolong each human existence to a hundred years, or more.

Rather startling, to be true, but still not without the bounds of either reason or attainment.

The average life is thirty-three years. That is to say take a thousand beings and the total number of years they will see before the last passes away will be 33,000. Our memory is not distinct on the data, but the impression is that as the thousands advance to total extinction, a less proportionate number die every year, except possibly those in the later fifties. Perhaps in any given thousand one or more will attain the century mark, certainly several will go to ninety. That being the case such a thing as making the long mark a common one instead of a most uncommon one, is within the range of possibilities. Leastwise we know that people do reach that age and what one of the race does many others can do.

So after all it isn't to be taken for granted that prolonging life to the unusual years is a matter of such serious difficulty, or a mystery so profound that can not be solved. According to science it reduces itself in the main to the simple fact of right living, physically, morally and mentally. Moderation in conduct, wholesome and agreeing food and proper exercise, with freedom from worry, will prolong existence. Excesses bring untimely end, but 'tis claimed that worry shortens the years more than any other cause, perhaps, because most people do worry.

Now one thing, at least is clear, that is supposing everybody tried to live a hundred years and set themselves to the strict observance of rules and regulations conducive thereto, no considerable number in a club might reach the ultimate aim, but because of their efforts a more vigorous race would be born and in the course of time a centenarian would not be something of a curiosity.

A MIXED SITUATION

A state wide primary for the nomination of candidates of high and low degree, was held in Missouri, Tuesday. The unfortunate voters were presented with various and sundry perplexing candidates. In both parties there were aspirants proclaiming they were dry and anti-league and vice versa, wet and for the league and vice versa, some strong on the liquor question and uncertain on the league, some hold on the league and uncertain as to liquor.

Out of the hodge podge the results, if they showed anything at all, seemed to indicate a victory for the drys and the league. Senator Spencer, Republican, who was wet and anti-league, was defeated for re-nomination, and Breckenridge Long, for the enforcement of the Volstead act and strong for the league, beat his strongest opponent and who under normal conditions would have won, Judge Henry Priest, wet and for the league with reservations.

Analyzing the vote, on the early returns, however, presents a considerable puzzle from the viewpoint of common assumption. For instance, St. Louis is thought to be one of the wettest cities of the country, yet it simply overwhelmed Spencer, a resident, and it likewise swamped Judge Priest, also a resident, and both wet. This might be accounted for on the Democratic side because there were four rather popular candidates, but on the Republican ticket there were only two and a rank outsider won.

The best excuse we see is for the defeated ones to lay it on the fallacy of the primary. By it the people were expected to make their nominations and find their voice omnipotent, but usually there is no majority either because of the multitude of candidates, or the people refuse to come out and have a say.

When one reads of $1,000 being given to a club if it beats another and a $100,000 being paid for this player and that, there is not much room for wonder why every boy has his dreams.

May be just all a fancy, but the public market does not seem to be this season the extensive thing of former years. Perhaps not so much in the lessened number of buyers as in the fewer stands.

THE DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

STENOGRAPHIC DAYS FOR LINDSEY

July 30—Mad days, these, for a certain young maid, I can tell you. Between the family, packing, working and seeing Jack I find that most of the time I am not sure whether I am standing on my head or my heels. However, it's all in life time, and I do know that days like these with their thrills and thrills will never come back again, in quite the same way. And, Lord, how more than sweet they are.

I have been doing splendid work for the Evening Leader and I know that up to the present the family has had no complaints to make, and as for Jack—well, his old heart, he is in a state of delirium most of the time. He is going to stay over an extra day to see us off to Southampton—and it's a pleasing thought.

My own little room looks like a cyclone had struck it since the two unpacking cartons. Trunks included his sacred precincts, and whenever I have a spare moment I have some about twice a day) mother follows me in with some more things to pack. "Just to get them out of the way by degrees," she says.

She knows her daughter, bless her dear heart, and also knows perfectly well that if Miss Lindsey had her way she'd walk until midnight of the day before leaving for Europe and sort of live all the things into the trunk and suit case, high-de-doo—doo—doo. I do not believe in this method of packing, an exquisite act of plain, stupid, old packing—not me!

Most also add that I have been forced to do a lot of extra sleeping. Mother discovered, to her horror, that I was about to set sail with two whole stockings to my name, and so—well, today ones! Funny that, face the truth about ourselves some-

BILLY WHISKER

Subsidiary, not even a goat, likes to think of being roasted for dinner, and so, the minute he heard that Billy gave an extra hand out at the wire but it only cut his neck and clanked him and would not break. So he gave it up and "bashed" pitifully while he looked to Caspar for help.

"Indeed you will not roast this goat," said sturdy Caspar. "It's my goat; he chased my dog and I'm going to keep him."

Caspar looked up at his father and his father looked down at Caspar. Billy looked up at both of them. Little Caspar and big Caspar stood exactly alike, both of them with their fists doubled on their hips and both of them with square jaws and firm lips, and it was big Caspar, who, proud to see his boy looking so much like himself, finally gave in. He laughed and said:

"All right, he's your goat; but you have got to take the whippers for all the damage he does."

"Very well," said Caspar. "I'll do it" and his father walked away.

Billy was so pleased with this that he made up his mind to be very nice to the boy, and when Caspar stooped down to take the empty plate away, Billy ran his nose affectionately into young Caspar's hand. Right after breakfast Caspar took off the wire from Billy's neck, holding a switch in his hand to whip the goat over the nose in case he tried to lout or run away. But Billy did neither of these things. He followed his new master out in the yard, and there he was backed between the shafts of a little wagon that had been made for Fleabite. The dog capered and barked and made a run or two at Billy but the goat only shook his horns at him and Fleabite ran under the barn. The dog was jealous. He did not like the wagon but, rather than have the goat hitched to it, he wanted to haul it himself.

"It's no use, Fleabite," said Caspar, "you might as well make friends with him. Anyhow, you're not big enough to haul this wagon, and you always lay down in the harness. You can come along behind though. I'm going to Kansas and show my goat to cousin Fritz."

WHO'S WHO In The Days News

NORMAN E. MACK

Norman E. Mack, member of the Democratic national committee from New York state, hails from Buffalo. He started life in 1855 and found his way through various occupations to newspaper ownership. Though equipped with only a public school education and scarcely any funds, he took a chance in 1879 and started the Sunday Times in Buffalo. It struggled a while, then flourished and Mack followed with it. Today he is worth a large fortune, yielded by his newspaper properties.

Mack supported Cleveland in 1884, and when the star of the Commager from Nebraska began to rise in 1896, the Buffalo newspaper man was in the front row of those singing Bryan's praises. Again, in 1900, he was militant for Bryan, and in 1908 he displayed his political foresight by predicting the re-election of both Bryan and Taft, exactly as happened. He was made chairman of the Democratic national committee at the direct request of the Commager.

Mack and William J. Conner, sometimes known as "Fingy," used to live things up in Buffalo by their political warfare on each other, both striving for the Democratic leadership of Erie. Both started life as poor boys, and both made their fortunes through ownership of Buffalo newspapers.

Mack has been a delegate to all Democratic national conventions since 1892.

Our host, "The Starland," leaves at two o'clock next Saturday. Here it is Friday, and only a few short days more to finish up in.

Put In The Bill

When in Canada last, Mr. Kipling was so dissatisfied with the hotel accommodations that he gave the landlady a severe reprimand. Said he: "I have never been in one that for my indicated all-around, unmercenary discomfort could equal yours."

After the landlady had withdrawn in great indignation, Kipling asked for his bill, and he discovered that the last item was, "To Incontinent—three dollars."

The Chief Question

At the last lecture of the term Professor Chapman told the students, with much emphasis, that he expected them to devote all of their time to preparation for the final examination.

"The examination papers are now in the hands of the printer," he said, "is there any question you would like answered at this time?"

For a moment there was silence; then one of the students called out:

"Who is the printer?"—Harper's.

Voice Of Experience

"Charlie, dear," said young Mrs. Terline, "do you want me to visit?"

"I'm not going to tell you," "Why not?" "Because it's anything goes wrong with the election you'll say you did exactly as I told you, and it's all my fault."—Washington Star.

Pays To Advertise

Sue had for a long time been praying for a baby sister.

The other day, on lying down the local paper, her mother said: "Our new pastor's wife has a little daughter."

"How do you know?" asked Sue.

"It's here in the paper," her mother replied.

"Please read it to me," said the child, and her mother read: "Born, on July 15, to the Rev. and Mrs. John Smith, a daughter."

Sue thought for a moment. Then she said: "Mother, I know what I'm going to do. I'm going to stop paying and begin advertising."

The Necessary Warrior

"Didn't you use to belong to a Don't Worry Club years ago?" "Yes," replied the patient, yet firm woman, I had to resign. New-York - Day-By-Day

BY G. O. MONTYRE

NEW YORK, Aug. 5—Broadway waiters who are unscrupulous have been adding vastly to their reputations since the bubonic island would dry. In the old days waiters who meant something, after hours it meant that whatever he served in the bar cup had the old wallop and if he slipped again it meant he could get more.

Since prohibition the wink has meant to sit tight and that your alcoholic desires will be satisfied. There is one waiter who will never serve a well known Park flow editor again. That the waiter is alive to serve his patrons is due only to the beauty of a kind Providence, and to the laws which make murder punishable by death.

The waiter glided away and returned with a large glass that contained a villainous looking mixture. "A little drink we put up ourselves," he explained, "and ought to be in the immediate vicinity to hour." Just a soft drink, I know the waiter of the dollar bill in his hand, just a soft drink.

Exactly the editor drank the concoction to the last drop. Then the waiter returned and said: "The waiter of the dollar bill in his hand, just a soft drink."

In one of the hotels in the Forties a man came with in possession of the other night, and a Mr. Cohen who has accumulated much wealth in the stock market business, tried his luck for the first time. For out of town earnings it might be explained that in the first place, one first allows a point. If he makes the point before throwing a seven he wins.

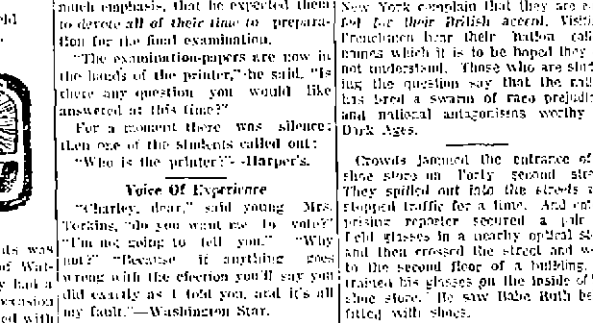

Mr. Cohen threw a ten. He was excited. "I bet $50,000 I can make it," he said. "I have some had over for a year and the messenger says he's just lost $50,000 in a snap game."

"Fifteen thousand dollars," she said. "He should drop dead!" "Good night!" The story got out because later the man received.

Stranded railway station in lower New York certain that they are not for their British agent. Visiting Frenchmen hear their nation called names which it is to be hoped they do not understand. Those who are struck by the question say that the nation has been a swarm of race prejudice and national antagonisms worthy of Dark Ages.

Crowds jammed the entrance of a shoe store on Park street. They spilled out into the streets and stopped for a time. And other police reported secured a pile of old glasses in a nearby optical store and then crossed the street and went to the second floor of a building. He grabbed his glasses on the inside of a shoe store. He saw the shoe being fitted with shoes.

POLES FAIL TO STOP REDS; BRITISH MAY SEND TROOPS

"SITUATION AS CRITICAL AS IN AUGUST 1914"

LONDON, Aug. 5.—(By The Associated Press)—Lia Kamenoff, president of the Moscow Soviet, is reported to have sent a message to his government asking that Russia accept immediately the original British proposals for an armistice with Poland.

PARIS, Aug. 5.—Great Britain has taken steps to mobilize rapidly two divisions for service in Poland, according to the Mail, which adds that plans for the transportation and re-equipping of this force have been prepared. Negotiations between France and Great Britain for the purpose of devising means for aiding Poland are being pushed actively, other papers assert, and the bureau which has been liquidating war stocks has cancelled certain previous engagements.

LONDON, Aug. 5.—(By The Associated Press)—Among British officials and diplomats of other nations here, undisguised anxiety is felt over the Russo-Polish situation. One Mink official said:

"THE SITUATION IS AS GRAVE AS THE ONE IN AUGUST, 1914."

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Efforts by the armies of the Polish republic to stem the tide of the Russian Bolshevik invasion which threatens Warsaw, seem to have been futile.

Warsaw, the last bastion in the permanent defense east of the Polish capital, is in the hands of the Soviet armies, and Lomza, an important railroad junction, and strategic base to the northeast, and Kovel, northeast of Lomza, have been given up by the Poles.

West of Lomza, the Poles still hold the great forts that have made that city one of the principal fortresses of eastern Europe, but the Soviet troops have been lying across the Bug river further to the northwest and it would appear this move will compel a retirement of the Poles from their defenses. The Russians are advancing in Lomza after the battles fought by General Mackensen, when he led the German armies in the great Russian campaign during the world war, and the Poles are repeatedly being outflanked and forced to leave positions they have held for days against Soviet attacks.

The Polish armistice commission leaves Warsaw for Minsk today to meet representatives of the Moscow government for the purpose of arranging an armistice and beginning peace negotiations.

There are many reports of allied action to step the advance of the Bolsheviks or to come to the aid of Poland, but as yet nothing authoritative has been reported relative to this phase of the seemingly desperate situation confronted by the infant republic.

SUFFS FATE HINGES ON TENNESSEE PRIMARY

MEMPHIS, TENN., Aug. 6.—Interests in today's state wide primaries in Tennessee centered in the election of thirteen members of the legislature to the Democratic and Republican gubernatorial nominations.

Fate of the women suffrage amendment which the general assembly is expected to take up next week at a special session, was believed by suffrage leaders to hinge on today's results. Governor Roberts has indicated that immediately after the election he will issue a call for the legislature to meet Monday.

Senatorial Race Close

ST. LOUIS, MO., Aug. 5.—Political interest in Missouri today centered on the race for the Democratic senatorial nomination as returns of Tuesday's state wide primary continued to drift in from the rural districts.

With unofficial, incomplete returns from about fifty of 111 counties, and St. Louis giving Brockbridge Long, a majority of 14,241 votes over former Federal Judge Henry S. Priest, the closest of his two opponents, the Globe Democrat, Independent Republican paper, by which the vote was compiled, announced today that Long will win with a plurality which may exceed 10,000. His principal strength lies in the rural communities, returns indicate.

Long campaigned on a league of nations and law enforcement platform. Priest, anti-league, and anti-war. Charles M. Hay who appears to be running about 18,400 behind Long was endorsed by the Anti-Saloon League and its platform.

The renomination of Senator Selma P. Spencer, Republican senatorial candidate, was conceded last night by the organization which promoted the candidacy of Duane P. Davis, who, with Senator Spencer, led a three-cornered race. Prohibition also entered into this contest, Davis opposing the Volstead law, on which Senator Spencer voted to override President Wilson's veto.

Still Trailing

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA., Aug. 5.—Representative Scott Ferris continued to hold his lead early today over Thomas P. Gore, candidate for renomination for United States senator in Tuesday's primary election.

However, friends of Senator Gore declared they were greatly encouraged over a late night trend in their favor which showed Ferris' lead from 29,000 to 25,000 with six hundred precincts still to be reported.

Gore headquarters steadfastly refused to concede defeat.

Four Ordered Race For Governor

TOLUCA, KAN., Aug. 5.—The four cornered race for the Democratic nomination for governor occupied chief interest here today as the returns from Tuesday's state wide primary continued to come in slowly. Based upon latest reports, Jonathan Davis of Brown, was holding a slight lead over Dempster Potter, Wichita, O. T. Wood, Liberal, and W. S. Hyatt, Parsons. All four candidates were predicting the late rural count would bring fortification in their favor. The contest was the only one on the Democratic ticket.

On the Republican ticket, Senator Curtis, Governor Henry Allen and Attorney General Richard Hopkins, all were far ahead of their opponents for renomination.

RUSSIA AND GERMANY IN SECRET TREATY OVER POLAND

The treaty it is asserted, concluded LONDON, Aug. 5.—Soviet Russia concluded a secret treaty with Germany concerning Poland a few weeks before the great Polish offensive began, says a correspondent of the London Times. He claims he has secured the information from "excellent authority."

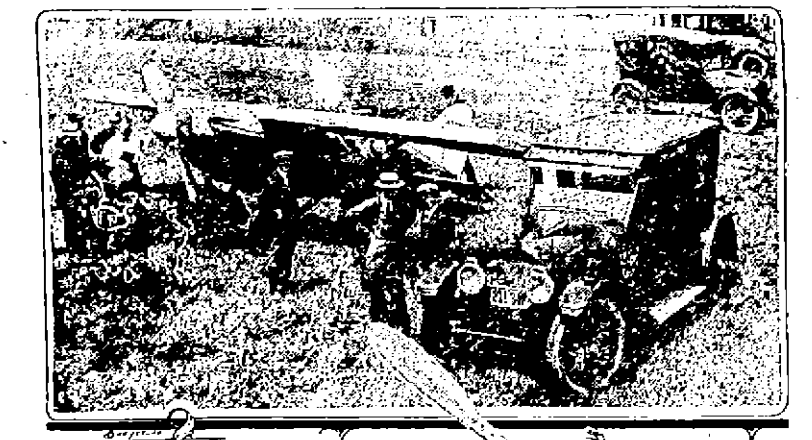

lained the following provisions: Russia, without interference from Germany, would be allowed to appropriate all of Poland's arms, munitions, clothing stock and food stuffs. After the conquest of Poland, steps in the formation of which are permission would be given Russia to send a number of Bolshevik commissioners into that country to control the export of Polish supplies of all kinds. Russia would then undertake to completely evacuate Poland in favor of Germany, which would hold the country as a guarantee against future credits to Russia in return for German goods and German labor. "Russia," the correspondent adds, "intends to try to avoid the terms of this treaty by the creation of a Polish Bolshevik army, the last now being taken in occupied areas."

of Poland. When Russia withdraws from Poland she will leave this Polish army, permitting Germany to take such steps as she can to face the situation. The Bolsheviks are convinced England will not materially aid Poland, and will wage their next campaign against Rumania in Bessarabia.

REAL KICK IN CHRISTENING OF FOUR-MILE-A-MINUTE PLANE

The "Texas Wildcat" in comparison with an ordinary motor car, and (below) Mr. and Mrs. S. E. J. Cox christening the plane.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. J. Cox of Houston, Texas, broke a real bottle of champagne over the nose of the Curtiss monoplane which will represent America in the great Gordon Bennett airplane race in France, as Mrs. Cox christened the plane "Texas Wildcat." The plane is said to be capable of making four miles a minute. Mrs. Cox won fame by flying from Texas to New York to put her boy in school. She then flew back. Mr. Cox is a noted Texas oil magnate. The "Texas Wildcat," which Mr. Cox is entering in the name of the Aero Club of Texas, is a monoplane of unusual design. Its white fuselage, which is the shape of a large cigar, is supported by the amazingly small wing spread of thirty feet.

POSSE IN HUNT FOR MULATTO

LEXINGTON, KY., Aug. 5.—A posse of several hundred farmers and county officers, armed with guns, ropes, and pitchforks, this morning continued to scour Madison, Jessamine and Fayette counties in a search for Buford Monday, mulatto, 28 years old, charged with having assaulted Mrs. Charles Sumers, sixteen years old, of Valley View, Madison county, Ky., fifteen miles from here.

The posse spent all yesterday afternoon and last night searching for the negro, who is alleged to have forcibly entered the Sumers home and committed the assault upon Mrs. Sumers Monday morning. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Sumers, who is about to become a mother, remained calmness and refused to say. She said Monday threw a powdered drug into her face.

Monday was seen at Nicholasville, Jessamine county, late yesterday afternoon, according to members of the posse. He formerly was in the army and saw service in France.

Howat Refuses To Order Miners Back

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 5.—President Lewis sent telegrams to thirty local unions in Kansas ordering the striking miners there to return to work. According to Mr. Lewis, 338 miners are on strike in the Kansas field.

In his telegram President Lewis declared the strikers are in violation of a contract between the United Mine Workers and the Southern Coal Operators Association.

Mr. Lewis also sent a telegram to Alexander Howat, sharply taking him to task for fostering the trouble in the Kansas field. In his message, Lewis declared the president of the Kansas miners had made no attempt to settle the strike in that state and he warned Howat that he must comply with the laws of the nation.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Aug. 5.—Alexander M. Howat, president of the Kansas Miners Union, sent a cablegram to John L. Lewis, president of the International Union, refusing to obey the strike order issued from Lewis today that should coal miners in Kansas return to work immediately.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5. Dealers were on a contract to close at the opening of the stock market with widespread uncertainty and prices variable until the first official call. Dealers in effect a broad general decline in prices, reflecting a general feeling of pessimism, including declines in automobiles, steel, sugar, and other commodities. The general decline was reflected in the opening of the market, with most of the leading stocks showing a decline. The market was characterized by a general feeling of uncertainty and a lack of confidence in the future of the country.

Ladies' Night

It had been whispered about that Townsend's arm was on the blink as the result of a hard game he pitched outside the league. He did not show anything that would indicate that he was windblown in the pitching machine, for he sent the ball hop-scotch to across the plate with his old time speed and assortment of bends that had the Drows leashed to the mat from the very start.

Frank Gelfer, always with a smile, was out on the rubber for the Dreads, who did just manage to scrape enough runs to counter to fill the plate positions. Manager Henry Ross is out of the game due to an injury and will hardly be able to catch again this season. Gelfer was hit once, very much surprised—and with the exception of one or two of the Edwards, the 1929 Champs laid down their batting average. This expression applies with great force to Hooper Washington Stisten, who peeled off five hits in as many trips to the plate. This is a batting record to the Negro and one of which the fiercest young fellow can be justly proud. He hit everything southward and had the satisfaction of not only securing the batting honors of the league but also of scoring four runs, matching the achievement of Charles Stillwell, catcher for the Champion Steamers. Stisten also stole a couple of bases and was no chump as a young colar. "Shorty" Shultz and Fred Baseman, of Pots of the Salvage, secured three TOLSON, Jr., Aug. 5.—Today's racing at the Grand Central racetrack featured interesting betting odds. Looks like the class of the week to followers of the big live performers.

There are four events on the program consisting of the 2-4 mile, 250 pace, 250 pace and B 2-4 mile, 250 pace. The first two fields are put back but there seems to be plenty of class in the line ups.

The Wayne 250 pace for an $8,000 money purse of $2,000, has seven starters. Hal Moore, winner of the Columbus day stakes, is best choice and John R. Braden, second.

Gladie Todd probably will be favored by the hint in the last race, which carries a purse of $1,300, although opposition is expected to be handicapped by Johnny Turk and Louis Bradford.

Six countesses are named in the Tolson 2500 stake for tonight. There is no doubt about it, Fred Peterson, a winner here of the first night race and again at Kalamazoo, is the early favorite.

Tommy Murphy, the Dougherty champion, will start Lord Preston, two-year-old colt by San Francisco, who was runner up in the 2500 at Kalamazoo.

Gruesome Paving.
Tombstones have been employed in Nottinghamshire, Derbyshire, Lincolnshire and Leicestershire, England for purposes of paving, and were purchased by the authorities of the Vale of York in 1840 for the purpose of paving the streets of the city. The stones being used as a paving material, the authorities have been obliged to remove them from the church. The local authorities, however, sought to justify the measure on the ground that there were plenty of old gravestones on hand which, if used, might result in a saving of money.
